

Botanical Name: Asystasia travancoria syn salicifolia
Common Name: Asystasia
Origin: Thailand, China, India, Laos and Myanmar
Height/Width: 50-100 cm tall
Habit: Shrubby perennial
Flower: Flowers are blue to purple held aloft on spikes and bell shaped with darker throats
Leaves: Long narrow, pointed, shiny foliage draping to the ground (useful in hanging pots).

Climate: Tropical/Sub-tropical
Soil: Well drained soil
Aspect. Sunny to part shade location. Thrives in humid conditions
Prune: Light trim after flowering late winter.
Drought/Frost: Tolerant/Tender
Propagation: From cuttings taken after pruning.