

Botanical Name: Justicia floribunda syn Justicia rizzinii

Common Name: Firecracker Flower, Firefly

Origin: Brazil

Height/Width: 1m x 1.5m

Habit: Small dense rounded shrub

Flower: Small pendulous, tubularbell shaped flowers in colours ranging from scarlet, orange to yellow hence the "firecracker" common name...
Flowers from June to October.

Leaves: Small deep green, oblong to ovate leaves

Climate: Sheltered position tropics to sub-tropics.

Soil: Fertile moist, well-drained soil.

Aspect. Sun to part-shade

Prune: Tip prune to maintain to encourage bushy growth and lots of flowers.

Drought/Frost: Moderate/Tender

Propagation: By layering or cuttings